NEXT STEPS FOR GROWTH, SUSTAINABILITY AND IMPACT

March 9-10, 2018

Centers on more established organizational development stages

Intensive, fast-paced nonprofit business workshops. You will build skills for negotiating complex EAAT business challenges and become equipped to guide your center to financial sustainability and achievement. Lake Erie College provides an idyllic setting at The George M. Humphrey Equestrian Center in Mentor, Ohio. The college's EAAT program is a PATH Intl. Member Center and Higher Education Member.

Your presenter/facilitator: KC Henry is principal of Transitions Unlimited LLC, a consulting firm for nonprofit businesses. She specializes in organizational development, board development, strategic planning and start-up programs. As Executive Director at Fieldstone Farm Therapeutic Riding Center she provided leadership for their $4.5 million dollar building campaign, the design and construction of their state-of-the-art therapeutic riding facility, and the development of a staff of 31 people that served 200 students with disabilities weekly. She is founder or co-founder of three other successful therapeutic riding centers. In 2006 she received the James Brady professional achievement award from PATH Intl. She has been in the EAA/T field for 30+ years – including as executive director of the Horses and Humans Research Foundation. She has successfully managed a number of capital campaigns, serves on state, local and international boards and has clients around the world.
